

I am VERY concerned about this idea of using power lines for the broadband use for internet. The experience in other countries such as Japan makes one feel it will wipe out the ham bands as well as other HF radio use.

Please pay special attention to the work done by Ed Hare, the RFI specialist for the ARRL.

Thank you for you attention.
Ken Holland
K9FV